

A Christmas Message from Ozanam Hall

As the joyous season of Christmas draws near, I, along with the entire family of Ozanam Hall, extend heartfelt blessings to our beloved residents, their families, our devoted staff, and the wonderful community that surrounds us.

Christmas is a time of reflection and renewal, a time to celebrate the boundless love of Christ who came to dwell among us. It is a season of giving—not only of material gifts but of the precious gifts of kindness, patience, and understanding. Here at Ozanam Hall, we witness these gifts daily through the care and dedication of our staff and the love shared between our residents and their families.

In the spirit of the Carmelite tradition, we are called to see the face of God in one another. This Christmas, let us all embrace this calling with open hearts, sharing light, joy, and hope in a world that so deeply needs it.

To our residents, you are the heart of Ozanam Hall. Your wisdom, faith, and courage inspire us every day. To our families, thank you for trusting us to care for your loved ones and for sharing in the journey. To our staff, your tireless commitment and compassionate service are the embodiment of love in action.

May this Holy Season bring you and your loved ones peace, health, and abundant blessings. May the New Year renew your spirits and fill your lives with the joy and grace of God's presence.

With gratitude, prayers, and warm wishes for a blessed Christmas and a joyful New Year,

Sr. Phillip Ann Bowden, O. Carm
